Dear Shantell,

It is with great pleasure that I write to offer you admission into the Digital Humanities, MA program for the 2026 Fall Term. The admissions process is extremely competitive, and you were selected from a highly accomplished group of applicants.

At the Graduate Center, we strive to offer the kinds of academic and professional support students need to earn their degree in accordance with their personal, professional, and academic goals. I encourage you be in touch with faculty and students in your program to learn more about what the program offers.

Next Steps: Please accept or decline this offer by going back to your applicant status portal and filing out the Decision Reply Form. All offers may be withdrawn if you have not indicated your intent to enroll prior to: 4/15/2026

On behalf of all of us who had the pleasure of reviewing your application and credentials, best wishes to you for your success. I hope your next steps lead to the Graduate Center and to our vibrant academic community.

Warm regards,
